December library events

Escape to the library

By Harriet Halbig

The library is a great place to escape the hustle of the season. We will offer a variety of programs for all ages. Please note that some programs will not be offered during the school holiday period.

Family programs

The Family Fun program on Dec. 12 from 2:30 to 4 will be Reindeer Dog. Sienna is tired of being a dog. She wants to be a reindeer! Will her wish come true or will the other reindeer refuse to let her join in any of their reindeer games? Elf Denise Gard and Sienna, her faithful and talented dog, will spread some holiday cheer with this show. The program is free and registration is required at 488-2370.
